A SHORT STATE of the APPLICATION of the MONEY,

AND OF

The OBJECTS RELIEVED by this CHARITY to the MONTH of OCTOBER, 1783.

YORK:

PRINTED BY W. BLANCHARD AND CO. AND SOLD FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE CHARITY BY J. DODSLEY, T. CADELL, AND J. ROBSON IN LONDON; AND BY THE BOOKSELLERS IN YORK. PRICE 10s. 6d.

AN ACCOUNT, &c.

THE very ſingular and diſtreſſed ſtate of the Reverend DANIEL HALL'S family, firſt induced the Reverend Thomas Conſtable and ſeveral other Gentlemen, well acquainted with the particulars thereof, to promote a public ſubſcription for their relief, and to ſolicit a contribution for the purpoſe of purchaſing a ſmall annuity for each of Mr. HALL'S FIVE BLIND CHILDREN; eſpecially as none of the various other laudable charities, for which this nation is ſo juſtly diſtinguiſhed, afforded a proſpect of relief adequate to the particular circumſtances of a caſe, altogether ſo peculiar and extraordinary.

With this view printed letters were circulated, to induce Gentlemen and Clergymen to permit their names to be made uſe of for the above humane purpoſe, which ſtated that "The Rev. Daniel Hall of Leven in the Eaſt-Riding of "the County of York, being in the 65th year of his age, "and in an infirm ſtate of health, had a wife and ten chil-"dren, of which number five were blind, and that the "whole of his income (amounting to about Ninety Pounds "per annum) aroſe from three Curacies, and thoſe ſo in-"conveniently ſituated, as to oblige him to ride thirty-ſix "miles every Sunday," and referred to ſeveral very reſpectable Gentlemen who could atteſt the truth of that repreſentation.

In the latter end of the year 1781, advertiſements were accordingly publiſhed in moſt of the newſpapers in the kingdom, ſtating, That Mr. Hall laboured under a load of afflicting circumſtances—That he had a wife and ten children, of which number five were blind—That his income did not exceed 90*l.* a-year, which however ſmall had enabled him to maintain his family with decency, but that a declining ſtate of health made it highly probable his deareſt connections would ſoon loſe their only ſupport.—And further repreſenting the names and ages of the children to be

This

This, and the ſubſequent advertiſements, contained the names of a great number of very reſpectable perſons, who kindly undertook to receive all charitable donations and to apply them agreeable to the intention of the donors; and it was therein intimated, That

" As ſoon as a ſum ſhould be raiſed ſufficient for the pur-
" chaſe of 15 or 20*l.* a-year for each of the blind children,
" a Committee would be choſen from among the Subſcribers
" to regulate the buſineſs; but ſhould the benevolence of the " Public exceed the required ſum, it was intended that the " ſurplus ſhould be returned to the Subſcribers in regular
" proportions."

To give the utmoſt public ſatisfaction of the propriety of the above application, five Gentlemen of eminence in their profeſſion, were pleaſed to meet and examine the blind children, and ſigned the following Certificate.

We whoſe names are under-written, having carefully examined five of the children of the Rev. Daniel Hall, do give it as our opinion that they are totally blind, and at the ſame time we are of opinion that little or no hopes ought to be entertained of their recovery. The underſtandings of the four elder children ſeem to us ſo weak that we judge them unfit even for the common employments which are compatible with blindneſs. With reſpect to the youngeſt child, his tender [illegible] prevents us from forming a deciſive opinion concerning the ſtate of his underſtanding.

CHARLES ATKINSON, RICHARD FAVELL, } Surgeons to the York County Hoſpital.

WILLIAM HEY, THOMAS JONES, JAMES LUCAS, } Surgeons to the Leeds Infirmary.

As ſoon almoſt as theſe meaſures had been taken, and the caſe generally known, the bounty and liberality of the nation was fully manifeſted by liberal contributions from all parts of the kingdom, and all ranks of perſons; therefore the promoters of the original plan very early gave public notice, That

" A ſufficient ſum being ſuppoſed to be collected for the " better ſupport of the Rev. Mr. Hall's blind children, the " public were requeſted by the promoters of the charity, to
" accept their acknowledgments on the behalf of thoſe un-
" fortunate objects; and deſiring the Gentlemen who had
" received contributions, to ſend them as ſoon as convenient
" to the Bankers in York."

It being now requiſite that ſome perſon ſhould be appointed to prepare and tranſcribe the proper orders and tranſact the other neceſſary buſineſs, George Townend, Gentleman, Town-Clerk of York, was appointed Secretary for that purpoſe.

In

In March, 1782, a public meeting of ſeveral Gentlemen, who promoted and received the contributions, was held at York, when it appeared that the ſum ſubſcribed exceeded 4000*l.* though the exact amount could not then be aſcertained:

It was therefore their opinion,

1. That a ſufficient ſum for the relief of the Rev. Daniel Hall's blind children ſhould be placed in the public funds, in the names of Sir Thomas Slingſby, Baronet, Sir John Ingilby, Baronet, Nathaniel Cholmley, Eſquire, Peter Johnſon, Eſquire, and the Rev. Thomas Conſtable.

2. That all other Money which might belong to this Charity, ſhould be in like manner laid out in the funds.

3. That a Committee, to be thereafter appointed with power of electing others, ſhould have the diſpoſition of the annual income under certain rules to be ſettled for the purpoſe.

4. That a ſum not exceeding 20*l.* per annum, to commence from Chriſtmas laſt, ſhould be paid out of the intereſt of the money to be placed in the funds, for the ſupport of each of Mr. Hall's blind children during their reſpective lives, inſtead of purchaſing ſmall annuities for them, as was originally intended.

5. That by this mode of diſpoſing of the money, a permanent eſtabliſhment might be formed for the relief of ſimilar objects.

6. That as this ſubſcription had been enlarged by the liberality of the religious and humane of different denominations, it was the wiſh of the Gentlemen preſent, that the Charity ſhould be applied to the relief of Miniſters, and the Wives, Widows, and Children of Miniſters, in any part of this kingdom, labouring under the misfortune of Blindneſs or Idiocy, who ſhould appear to the Committee to be proper objects of it.*

And thoſe Subſcribers who wiſhed to have ſo much of their Subſcriptions returned, as would not in the judgment of the Committee have been neceſſary to purchaſe annuities of 20*l.* each, for the ſupport of Mr. Hall's blind children, and diſcharge the incidental expences, were requeſted to give notice immediately to the perſons to whom their Subſcriptions were originally paid, who were deſired to ſend an account thereof to the Committee, in order that directions might be given for the return of a proper proportion of ſuch Subſcriptions: And as it was propoſed to carry the buſineſs as ſoon as poſſible into execution, it would be preſumed that the above plan was approved by thoſe who did not give ſuch notice in three months, and that no return would be claimed, except ſuch as ſhould be communicated to the Committee in four months from that date, at the expiration of which time the whole would be converted into a permanent fund.

* This rule is explained in the next page.

And as an inſtitution of this nature afforded a proſpect of general relief to the families of diſtreſſed Miniſters, thoſe who were deſirous of promoting it were requeſted to ſend their Subſcriptions to any of the Bankers before appointed.

In offering the above opinion for public conſideration, it will naturally occur that the Gentlemen concerned had theſe objects principally in view:

1. To place out the money ſubſcribed upon a proper and profitable ſecurity immediately.

2. To provide thereout in the firſt inſtance for Mr. Hall's blind children by ſmall annuities, agreeable to the original plan on which the money had been ſubſcribed, ſo as to afford every neceſſary comfort for perſons in their unfortunate ſituation; and that being done, to perform the engagement held out to the public, by returniug a due proportion of the ſums ſubſcribed, to thoſe Gentlemen and Ladies who ſhould deſire and apply for the ſame in a limited time.

3. And laſtly, To appropriate the ſurplus towards forming a permanent eſtabliſhment for the relief of objects ſimilar to thoſe who had excited the compaſſion of the public in ſo great a degree as to afford the proſpect of a very humane and beneficial inſtitution.

In doing this, it was apprehended that the Charity would become ſufficiently general to be of great public utility, and yet ſo limited as not only to make it eaſy and agreeable to Gentlemen to pay every neceſſary attention to the good government and management thereof, but alſo come neareſt to the deſign of the Donors—eſpecially as it is not confined to Miniſters of the Eſtabliſhed Church only, and the conſtruction to be put upon Blindneſs, or Idiocy, was always meant to be ſo liberal as to afford relief in neceſſitous caſes, to thoſe objects who may not literally, or technically come within that deſcription; however, in caſes of Blindneſs, the object muſt be ſo far deprived of the benefit of ſight as not to have the uſe of it for neceſſary purpoſes; and in caſes of Idiocy, muſt have ſuch a deprivation of reaſon as ſhall not then be deemed Lunacy, there being other charitable proviſions for ſuch caſes.

In purſuance of the orders for returning a proportion of the general Subſcriptions, to thoſe who ſhould chuſe to accept the ſame, three-fourths of donations, to the amount of 47*l.* 5*s.* were paid back.

In July, 1782, a General Meeting was deſired to be held at York, purſuant to public advertiſements,

1. To appoint a Committee for carrying the benevolent intention of the Subſcribers into execution;

2. To order how the money ſubſcribed ſhould be placed out and applied;

3. To

3. To conſider the propoſals received; And

4. To proceed further in forming a proper plan for the eſtabliſhment of this excellent Charity.

A public Meeting was accordingly held, when the annuities for Mr. Hall's blind children were directed to be paid to the Rev. Thomas Conſtable, the Rev. Henry Shepherd, and the Rev. George Hickes Paul, or any of them, and to be applied (until further orders to the contrary) in ſuch proportions and manner as they or any two of them ſhould think moſt proper for the maintenance, education, inſtruction, benefit, or ſupport of thoſe children, without being accountable to the parents for the ſame: And the following orders were alſo then made.

1ſt, That his Grace the Archbiſhop of York,
Earl Stanhope,
Earl of Aſhburnham,
Lord John Cavendiſh,
The Hon. Philip Bouverie,
Sir T. Turner Slingſby, Sir John Ingilby, } Barts.
Nathaniel Cholmley, Peter Johnſon, } Eſqrs.
} The Truſtees in whoſe names the money is inveſted.
The Rev. Thomas Conſtable,
Sir Thomas Egerton,
Sir John Liſter Kaye,
Sir John Sheffield,
Sir Henry Etherington, } Barts.

Matthew C. St. Quintin, John Fairfax, William Green, William Withers } of York,
Richard V. B. Johnſon of Hackneſs,
Henry Thompſon of Kirby-Hall,
William Marwood of Buſby,
William Read of Sandhutton,
William Strickland of Beverley,
J. S. Milnes, James Milnes, junior } of Wakefield,
Kenton Couſe of London,
John Bacon, Firſt-Fruit's-Office,
Rev. Nicholas Torre of Snydall
} Eſqrs.

And alſo all the Gentlemen who received contributions for this excellent Charity, and whoſe names ſhould be accordingly entered in the Order Book, ſhould be a Committee for the management thereof, with power to add to their number from time to time.

☞ Therefore all the Gentlemen named in the fifth and ſixth columns of the ſubſequent liſt, as well as ſeveral other receivers, whoſe names are entered in the Order Book, are of courſe authoriſed to act in the management of this Charity.

2. That five ſhould conſtitute a quorum, and be enabled to act in all caſes at a General Meeting to be held at York, agreeable agreeable to ſuch previous notice, by public advertiſements, as ſhould from time to time be thought proper, and the determination of the majority to be concluſive, ſo as five perſons or more ſhould be then preſent.

3. That though many of the Gentlemen appointed of the Committee might not find it convenient to attend the General Meetings, they might have an opportunity of receiving and tranſmitting applications, of recommending proper objects for relief, and of promoting and ſuperintending the management of the Charity in their reſpective neighbourhoods, in order that it might be as general as poſſible; but if any Gentleman named of the Committee did not wiſh to act, they were deſired to ſignify the ſame by letter to the Secretary.

4. That three-fourth part of the ſums ſubſcribed ſhould be returned by the reſpective perſons who received them, to ſuch Subſcribers as had reclaimed the ſame, agreeable to the former order in that behalf. The whole ſum then remaining would exceed 5000*l.* and be laid out in the public funds towards forming a permanent eſtabliſhment.

5. That a liſt of the Subſcribers ſhould be prepared by the Secretary.

6. That the firſt General Meeting of the Committee ſhould be held at the York-Tavern in York, on Thurſday the 24th day of October, then next, preciſely at eleven in the forenoon; at which Meeting all applications for relief would be conſidered.

7. That all perſons applying for relief ſhould tranſmit a true ſtate of their caſe, in writing, to the Secretary, previous to the Meeting, which was to be authenticated by one Juſtice of the Peace, and two Miniſters of the neighbourhood.

At the Meeting in October, 1782, it was Reſolved,

That there ſhould be two General Meetings held yearly at York, viz. on the ſecond Thurſday in April, and the ſecond Thurſday in October; and that further petitions for relief ſhould be received and conſidered at the Meeting in April then next.

And propoſed (if approved at the then next Meeting) that this Society ſhould in future be called The York Emanuel, and that the fund ſhould continue veſted in Truſtees, and be under the management and direction of Governors, to conſiſt of the preſent Committee, and ſuch others as ſhould be appointed.

This propoſal was confirmed in April, 1783, and the Society is therefore called The York Emanuel, and under the management of Governors, any three or more of whom, have power, during the

the interval of the General Meetings, if they attended the Meeting laſt preceding, to order any ſum to be paid for the relief of diſtreſſed objects intitled to the benefit of this charity, not exceeding 10l. for each perſon, it having been found neceſſary, from experience, to allow occaſional aſſiſtance of this nature in particular circumſtances; but the caſes of perſons receiving ſuch extra-benevolence are to be taken into conſideration and determined at the next General Meeting.

And at the Meeting in October, 1782, it was alſo reſolved, that all future advertiſements ſhould be inſerted in the two York news-papers, the St. James's Chronicle, and Lloyd's Evening Poſt only, until further order.

It is recommended that the following form be uſed for bequeathing a legacy:

"I give and bequeath unto A. B. and C. D. the ſum of "———— upon truſt, and to the intent that they do pay "the ſame to the Secretary or Treaſurer, for the time being, "of a Society who call themſelves the Governors of the "York Emanuel; which ſaid ſum of ———— I deſire may "be paid out of my perſonal eſtate, and be applied towards "carrying on the charitable deſign of the ſaid Society."

Such, therefore, are the outlines of the general plan and deſign of this Inſtitution, which may be regulated and varied at the General Meetings; and thoſe Gentlemen and Ladies who are deſirous of increaſing the general fund, and promoting the Charity, ſo well calculated for the comfortable ſupport of a number of perſons particularly intitled to the compaſſion and relief of the public, are deſired to ſend their donations to any of the following Bankers:

YORK. Meſſrs. Garforth & Co. and Meſſrs. Crompton & Co.

LONDON. Meſſrs. Martin and Co.—Meſſrs. Boldero, Kendall, and Co.—Meſſrs. Drummond and Co.—Meſſrs. Hoare and Co.—and Meſſrs. Pybus and Co.

The fund at preſent conſiſts of the ſum of Ten Thouſand Pounds Stock in the Three per Cent. Conſolidated Annuities; and a general ſtate of the accounts to October, 1783, together with the names and ſituations of the perſons then relieved by this Society, will appear at the end of the liſt of Subſcribers.

A SUMMARY ACCOUNT,

Containing the names and ſituations of the perſons relieved by this Charity to the month of October, 1783, with the amount of the annuity or ſum ordered to be paid to each of the following Annuitants during the pleaſure of the Governors for the time being, by two equal half-yearly payments, in January and July yearly, after the receipt of the dividends from the Stock in the Funds.

ANNUITANTS.

	Yearly Sums. £.	s.	d.
THE Rev. DANIEL HALL's FIVE BLIND CHILDREN each 20l. the firſt half-yearly payment being made in July, 1782.	100	0	0

In October, 1782, (being the firſt General Meeting) the five following Annuities were ordered to be paid, and the firſt half-yearly payments thereof to become due at Chriſtmas following.

The Rev. WILLIAM DUTTON, Vicar of Sundon in Bedfordſhire, of an unexceptionable character, upwards of eighty years of age, ſeverely afflicted with the gout and other diſtempers, and for ſeveral years deprived of ſight—his wife, who is ſome years older, having likewiſe in a great degree loſt the uſe of her eyes, and his annual income amounting only to 50l. out of which 20l. is paid to a Curate.			20	0	0
The Rev. ANTHONY DAWSON, late Curate of Clarebrough and Hayton, near Retford, Nottinghamſhire, which he was obliged to reſign, being rendered incapable of duty by a total deprivation of ſight, without any proſpect of cure.—He is a ſingle man, about thirty years of age, and had no ſupport but from the benevolence of others.—His public and private conduct certified to be irreproachable.	15	0	0
And at the Meeting in April, 1783, an additional yearly ſum was ordered of	5	0	0

MARY, the Widow of the Rev. JOHN HALL, deceaſed, late Curate of Felkirk, Yorkſhire, who died in Auguſt, 1781, leaving his widow and ſeveral children totally unprovided for. From eight years continuance of illneſs ſhe is reduced to a ſtate of Idiocy; neither aſks for nor takes nouriſhment without being preſſed to do it, and takes no notice of nor ſcarce ever ſpeaks to any perſon about her.	15	0	0
JANE, the daughter of the Rev. RICHARD FAWCETT, Curate of Hardrow and Lunds, both in the pariſh of Aiſgarth, in the county of York, of the annual value together of 65l. 10s. having a wife and five ſmall children, and no other income.—This daughter is aged eight years, and was born with ſuch a defect of ſight as diſables her from learning any kind of work to procure a livelihood, and without any expectation of cure.	10	0	0
ANN STORY, of Sawley in Yorkſhire, aged 42, daughter of the late Rev. FRANCIS STORY deceaſed, ſome years ago Curate of Pateleybridge, in the ſame county. She has been in a ſtate of Idiocy from her infancy, is ſubject to fits, in which ſhe frequently continues ſeveral days, and ſupported chiefly by her brother, a day-labouring taylor, on the allowance of one ſhilling weekly from the pariſh to which ſhe belongs.	10	0	0

In April, 1783, the three following Annuities were ordered, and the firſt half-yearly payments thereof to become due at Midſummer following:

The Rev. JOHN JENKINSON, of the pariſh of Ingoldſby, in Lincolnſhire, where he has reſided about thirty years, is about the age of 74, a graduate of the Univerſity of Cambridge, and late Curate of Braceby, which he was obliged to reſign at Lady-day, 1779, having become ſo blind as to be incapable of doing any duty in the church; his wife is alſo aged and infirm. Had no other income whatever ſince the loſs of his ſight, but intirely ſupported by the contributions of benevolent perſons in the neighbourhood, and certified to be a real object of charity.	20	0	0

JOHN PERRY, of the parish of Dirham, in the county of Gloucester, aged 64, an Idiot from his infancy, and son of the late Rev. MERVIN PERRY, deceased, for many years Rector of Dirham aforesaid, who died in the year 1753, leaving several children.—This person has been for some time chiefly maintained by the parish, the small share which was allotted to him of his father's effects being wasted by his eldest brother who undertook the care of him.	10	0	0

This was on condition that the order of a Justice should be procured for the parish to pay two shillings weekly towards his support, whereby he might be provided for in a comfortable manner, it not being the intention of the Governors to ease parishes by this Charity. And in consequence an order was obtained to continue the payment of three shillings a week, which has several years been paid.

JOHN PURSELL, of Leicester, aged 20, son of the late Rev. THOMAS PURSELL, of Beighton in Derbyshire. At about the age of 14 he was bound apprentice to a surgeon and apothecary, and during his apprenticeship, thro' fits and illness, his eye-sight became exceedingly affected and was soon totally lost, which put an end to the service; and not being capable of any employ was subsisted wholly by his sister, a maid-servant, having no other provision, and has frequent returns of his fits.	10	0	0

In October, 1783, the following Annuities were ordered, and the first half-yearly payments thereof became due at Christmas following:

EBENEZER BURNETT, of Hull, aged 40, eldest son of the late JOHN BURNETT, Dissenting-Minister there, about 13 years ago taught a school at Bury St. Edmunds in Suffolk, where he became so afflicted by melancholy and otherwise, as to be in a state of Idiocy, which rendered him unfit to continue his employment, and was afterwards supported by his father till he died in July 1782, and then maintained at the sole expence of his two brothers, whose circumstances were represented not to be such as to enable them to continue to relieve him intirely.	5	0	0

PAUL FEILDE, ſon of the late Rev. THOMAS FEILDE, deceaſed, was born at Brewood in Staffordſhire, in November 1764, blind. After nine years old was taught muſic, but about four years ago having the additional misfortune to become very deaf, was thereby prevented from any further advancement in that employment. Now lives with his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Feilde, King's Road, Chelſea, Middleſex, a widow, and has no means of ſupporting himſelf but from the humanity of his friends.	5	0	0
The Rev. Mr. HOWSON, late Curate of Arkſey, near Doncaſter, Yorkſhire, aged 68, had a paralytic ſtroke in the year 1782, whereby he was reduced to a State of Idiocy, having loſt his memory, being entirely incapable of managing his affairs, or in general of giving a rational anſwer, and has no means of maintaining himſelf and his wife, who is infirm; nor any ſupport but a voluntary allowance from the Rev. George Cooke.	10	0	0
SAMUEL HARDING, aged 25, ſon of the Rev. WILLIAM HARDING, Clerk, late Curate of Coppenhall, in the county of Cheſter, deceaſed, has been in a State of Idiocy almoſt from his infancy, being totally helpleſs, and obliged to be fed by his mother, with whom he lives, and who was left a widow with 10 children, intirely unprovided for. She is now aged 70, and has no other means of ſupporting herſelf, her ſaid ſon, and a ſick and deformed daughter, dependent upon her, than a penſion from the Corporation of the Sons of the Clergy, and a ſmall uncertain annuity from an Annual Meeting of the Clergy in the Dioceſe of Cheſter, both which will ceaſe at her death.	10	0	0
EBENEZER SOMERVILLE, of the pariſh of All Saints, Newcaſtle upon Tyne, aged 34, ſon of the late Rev. THOMAS SOMERVILLE, who was many years a Diſſenting Miniſter in the ſaid town. From his infancy has had ſuch imperfect ſight, that he could not be inſtructed in any buſineſs, and for about 10 years paſt has been greatly troubled with ſtrong epileptic fits, which misfortunes, together, render him incapable of labour, and he is now maintained by his mother, who ſubſiſts upon an annuity of 30l. but whoſe great age, upwards of 80, and many infirmities, render every thing depending upon her life extremely precarious.	5	0	0

ELIZABETH LUND, daughter of the late Rev. EDWARD LUND, deceaſed, who was many years Miniſter of the pariſh of All Saints, in the town of Lewes, in Suſſex, and died in 1776, leaving ſix children, all far advanced in life, and totally unprovided for. This daughter is now upwards of 53 years old, has been lame, and an Idiot from her childhood, and the whole of her income amounts to no more than 9l. 0s. 2d. per ann. which ſhe receives from the Corporation of the Sons of the Clergy, and the benevolence of a Lady.	5	0	0
JOHN SANDWICH, third ſon of the late Rev. ROBERT SANDWICH, Curate of Lucher, in the pariſh of Bamburgh, in Northumberland, who was killed by a fall from his horſe in 1777, leaving a widow and four ſmall children unprovided for, and who have nothing to ſubſiſt on but from charity. This ſon is an Idiot, and though near ſeven years old, unable to put on his cloaths, and is alſo dumb.	5	0	0
GRACE COOK, widow, daughter of the Rev. JOSIAH TOOKERMAN, who was Rector of Holmpton, and Vicar of Kilnſea and Welwick, in Holderneſs, Yorkſhire. She is aged 90 years or upwards, has been twice married, and now in the Poorhouſe, and relieved by the pariſh of Eaſington, being from her great age, in a State of Blindneſs, ſo as not to be able to diſtinguiſh one perſon from another.	10	0	0
HANNAH, the wife of the Rev. ROBERT WALKER, Curate of Pennington, near Ulverſton, in the county of Lancaſter, of 28l. per ann. and no other income. She is aged 50, and has been in a State of Idiocy for the ſpace of two years and ſix months laſt paſt, and upwards.	10	0	0

At a General Half yearly Meeting of the Governors, held at the York Tavern, in York, on Thursday, the 26th of April, 1784, pursuant to public Advertisments, the Treasurer's Accounts were examined, settled, and allowed, and the Balance remaining in his Hands declared to be 183l. 5s. 5d. by the Governors then present, viz. Peter Johnson, Esq; Gilbert Crompton, Esq; Rev. Thomas Constable, Rev. Edward Stillingfleet, Rev. R. D. Waddilove, and the Rev. Richard Thompson.

And at the same Meeting, it appeared to the said Governors, that the before-named Annuitants, John Perry and Ebenezer Somerville, were dead;

And therefore the following other Annuity was ordered to commence and continue payable during the pleasure of the Governors, for the Time being, for the relief of

The Rev. John Harris of Ambleston, Pembrokeshire, who has served the Curacy of Stanmore, in Middlesex, which from a Disorder in his Eyes he was obliged to resign, being totally incapable of doing any Duty or even of reading the largest Print, and had no Fortune to support him, but depended intirely for Maintenance on his Parents, who rent a small Farm in the Parish of Ambleston.	10	0	0

It was also ordered that the Annuities of Ebenezer Burnett and Samuel Harding should be increased 2l. 10s. each.

N. B. Since the above Meeting the before-named John Pursell, who received an Annuity of 5l. is also deceased.
